EXCITING TIME IN GLENWOOD

Husband is Said to Have Tried to Shoot His Wife
Sunday

CITIZENS ARE AROUSED

Evidences are Shown that Wife is Untrue to Man Whom
She Wed

According to a Connersville paper, some gay times are being had in Glenwood during these days. The little hamlet on the county line has been taking on some real city ways here lately and is attracting attention in more ways than one.

A few weeks ago the town was enlivened when it was reported that a resident of the place had chastised his wife when he found evidence that made him believe she was unfaithful to him.

Suspecting something of the kind, the man announced that he was going to Connersville and boarded an I. & C. car. When the car was a short distance out of the town he succeeded in getting the conductor to stop and let him off. He walked back, and going to his home, surprised his wife and her "friend" who had lost no time in calling.

There was a bluff at shooting, and the woman was pulled out of the house by the hair of her head by her irate husband and generally lively time followed. The affair died down, however, and nothing further has been heard of it.

But Sunday there was another hot time in the town, it is said, when a young husband for some cause unassigned, threatened to shoot his wife. The woman, it is said, requested the town marshal to arrest her husband but for some cause that official refused to take action.

The young husband is now absent from home, it is reported. Both of these occurrences took place on the Rush county side of the town.

MEETINGS PROVE VERY INTERESTING

State Sunday School Worker
Is Assisted by Local Talent
Each Day

The first meeting of the Sunday school special tour was held in Carthage yesterday afternoon and last night. George N. Burnie, the new State worker gave a splendid address at each session. Mr. Burnie is a Sunday school specialist and his talks are practical ones along this line.

A special meeting was held at Glenwood this afternoon and another to-night. Prof. A. E. Martin will make an address at Glenwood this evening.

CARRIER PIGEON WAS CAPTURED NEAR LIBERTY

Bird Was Plump and Lively and Showed Little Signs of Fatigue

V. E. Chance, near Liberty, found a carrier pigeon on his premises yesterday, and succeeded in capturing it with little trouble. The bird was plump and lively and showed little signs of fatigue. There were bands on both of the bird's legs, one bearing the inscription, "T. Y. 21421" and the other, "O. C. Z."

LADIES HOLD VERY INTERESTING MEETING

The Ladies Missionary Society of the Christian church held a very interesting and instructive meeting this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Nannie Helm on West Third street.

The devotional services were in charge of Mrs. Job Stevens. Mrs. William Houser spoke on "Calcutta's Memorial Mission." Some excellent musical selections were rendered by Miss Alice Norris and Miss Bessie Lee. Mrs. John Borem read an interesting paper on "Our Schools," followed by an excellent reading by Mrs. William McBride. The meeting was one of the best held for a long time.

MERCHANTS TO BE PROSECUTED

Local Business Men Will Be Indicted for Selling Im-

UNDER PURE FOOD LAW

State Pure Food and Drug Commissioner Secured Samples in this City Recently

Harry E. Barnard, the State Pure Food and Drug commissioner, will be in Rushville in a few days "on business." Either Mr. Barnard or one of his deputies was here some time ago, when a number of samples were secured at the various drug and grocery stores.

It is understood that several samples taken here were found to be impure and adulterated, and under the new Pure Food laws, the keepers of such foodstuffs will be duly prosecuted.

In several cities in the State merchants have been indicted and were obliged to pay heavy fines for the offense.

DISCOBULAS CAME TO THIS CITY BROKE

Presentation Exercises Had to be Postponed for a Few Weeks

The beautiful statue Discobulas, the disc thrower, purchased by the '07 class of the Rushville high school for the Graham building, arrived yesterday, but a mass of broken pieces. It was about six feet in height and had been shipped from Boston. It was broken in transportation.

It was the intention of the class to hold appropriate presentation exercises this week, with a speech by the class president, Ralph Stiffler, but this has been postponed until the broken work of art can be replaced. The company is responsible for the statue until it is received, and accepted by the class here.

WOODMEN ORGANIZING CAMP AT FALMOUTH

Special Deputy George A. Young is organizing a new camp of Modern Woodmen at Falmouth, and when the organization is effected, the Rushville camp will put on the degree work.

QUIET MEETING OF CITY COUNCIL

City Tax Levy on Assessments of this Year Reduced Five Cents

FEW PERMITS FOR WATER

The New Firemen Received their First Semi-Annual Pay For Services

The city council met in regular session last night with each member present, and Mayor Cowing presiding. There was not much business of importance, but what did come up was treated in a spirit of harmony.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read, and accepted as correct, after which came the ordinary business routine.

One of the most important things which came up before the council was the city tax levy on assessments. The tax levy on assessments of 1907 made last year by ordinance was sixty cents on the dollar for water and light fund, and fifty-five cents on the dollar for general fund, making a total of $1.15, which is a reduction of five cents total levy.

John Madden was permitted to build a cement sidewalk in front of his residence on North Main street.

The city treasurer's report was read before the council, showing a balance in all funds of $493.91. Assessments were made on some sidewalks on West Ninth street against Mary Collier, and on Gosnell avenue against Frank G. and Hannah Gosnell.

The firemen were made happy by receiving their semi-annual pay, which was the first pay day to several who are "raw recruits" in the service.

The report of the superintendent of the water and light plant, showed that eight new water service permits had been issued to residents who desire to connect with the city system. The ordinance controlling the water service does not allow any plumber to tap a water pipe without a permit from the water and light plant superintendent.

After a few minor allowances the council on motion of Councilman Young adjourned to meet in their next regular session Tuesday night, October 15th.

YOUNG SMELZER WIDELY KNOWN

Former Rush County Resident Buried Here Yesterday Was an Expert Motorist

Luther Smelser, the young man who was killed in an automobile accident at Morris Park, New Jersey last Saturday, and who was buried yesterday at Blue Ridge, was considered one of the best drivers of a machine in the country. However, he was not classed as a reckless driver, but if victory was in sight, he has been known to take a long chance in securing a lead. Mr. Smelser was known extensively throughout the East, and has received much newspaper notice in the past few years.

Connersville News: When local car No. 6 made its stop at Rushville, enroute to this city, Tuesday morning, the conductor, who was a new man, became interested in an old dwelling house which was on fire, near the C. & H. & D. railroad. The motorman boarded the car, and while the new conductor was watching the flames, some passenger pulled the bell cord and the car came on without the new man.

Embers of The Political Fires.

The two Millers in the gubernatorial race have political whole wheat to grind—not axes.

Watson will turn the tables at the spring convention and take a Taylor's measure—good naturedly, of course.

The "Gray Cloth Boys," in the R. R. service, say the Hiner boom was heard all over the county today.

B. F. Shiveley, of Richmond, is another "highly spoken of." Mr. Shiveley recently declared that he would not be a candidate for Congress from this district, as he had interests that consumed all of his time—and it will take more than "spare time" to secure a nomination at the next convention.

Dr. T. H. Kahn, of Richmond, is playfully indulging in a game of "Follow Jack." We admire his nerve, but his judgment is poor; merely a waste of time which could be directed in a more profitable manner in things in which he is more fitted for. If he stood closer to the throne of Tom Taggart, his chances would be better, but black cloth and green cloth will not be worn together this year—it is not fashionable.

A. L. Gary has been prominently mentioned as a candidate for State Representative from Rush county, but he declares he does not want to enter the political arena at any cost. Mr. Gary said: "Since I was a boy, I wanted to be a lawyer, but circumstances kept me busy chasing dollars all these years. Now that I have entered upon a practice of law, I will be more than busy chasing the Liberty heads to give my time to politics. It is out of order at this time."

The candidacy of Congressman Watson for Governor will be responsible for the return to active politics of one of the most picturesque figures in Indiana, says the Shelbyville News. The Hon. John K. Gowdy, of Rushville, formerly State chairman and for eight years United States Consul General to Paris, has been invited to manage Watson's campaign. He has, we understand, virtually accepted the responsibility and will have charge of Watson's headquarters at Indianapolis when they are opened. Gowdy in his day was known as a fighter from the ground up. It is said that the passing years have not dimmed his knowledge of the inside political game and that he is just as strong as he ever was as an organizer.

Ad V. Spivey is conceded the original Watson man around here. In his capacity as traveling salesman Ad covers a deal of ground and long before we dreamed that Watson would become a candidate for Governor, Mr. Spivey would return from his trip with the invariable declaration, "The people are demanding that he run." In March Mr. Spivey wrote a letter to the Daily Republican, from which the following excerpt is taken: "As to 'Our Jim' the public is under the impression that he would become a candidate, and it takes well. He seems, in measuring up the available to come nearer filling the bill than any man mentioned. * * * Judging from what I hear over the State, my candid opinion is Mr. Watson can win the next nomination for Governor."

Don't Knock on the Goodly Old Town!

There is an excellent motto hanging in the city treasurer's office which should be read by everyone. It is as follows: "Don't be a knocker. Hide your little hammer and try to speak well of others, no matter how small you know yourself to be. When a stranger drops in jolly him. Tell him this is the greatest town on earth—and it is. Don't discourage him by speaking ill of your neighbors. There's no end of fun in minding your own business. It makes other people like you. No body gets stuck on a knocker."

That Aged Man Applied for Marriage License Before in Rushville

THIS IS FOURTH VENTURE

Leads Blushing Bride of Almost Seventy Summers to Hy-men's Alter

"Just fifty years ago today I faced the clerk of the Rush county courts and asked for a license to get married," said an aged man to County Clerk Posey today.

"Well, well," said Mr. Posey, looking up, and acting like he was interested.

"And here I am again," said the man, "on the same mission."

"Oh!" said Posey, "and you want a marriage license?" It took him completely off his feet. The old man smiled as he answered the questions. Apparently he was as enthusiastic about securing the license as he was the first time.

The aged groom-to-be is John B. Vanchave, and this will be his fourth venture on the ocean of joy and the sea of matrimony. He was born in 1828, and has just rounded his seventieth year, but he is only as old as he feels—about thirty mile stones today.

The blushing bride which he led to Hymen's altar is Susan B. Humphrey, and she is only ten years his junior; this will be her third marriage. The pair can well go to the altar unattended, for they know the way.

CASE DISMISSED ON FAULTY AFFIDAVIT

Sheppard and Warfield on Trial
Charged With Stealing
Chickens Were Released

The trial of William Sheppard and Jesse Warfield, in which they were charged with stealing chickens, came up for trial today in the Rush circuit court.

The case was dismissed on account of a faulty indictment, before the defendant had produced any testimony.

The State failed by its own witnesses to prove the ownership or value of the chickens alleged to have been stolen. Sheppard, who was on trial today, is the same man who was charged with assaulting a little ten-year-old girl on the Shelbyville fair grounds a few weeks ago.

FAST MILE MADE BY GREEN PACER

Scott Brannum Drove Hawley
at a 2:01 Gait Yesterday

H. D. Ray, of Pittsburg, will be here tomorrow to look over the string of horses trained by Scott Brannum and owned by J. A. Quay, foreign consul to Florence, Italy.

Scott drove a two-year-old trotter by Larrabee in 2:30½ yesterday, and he put "Hawley" a green pacer around the mile circle in 2:09 flat, making the last half in 1:00 or a 2:01 gait.

Alec Williams starts at Hamilton today at the Butler county fair, and a number of Rushville bloods are on hand to cheer him to victory.

BIG TIME PLANNED FOR CARTHAGE HORSE SHOW

Saturday, October 12th, will occur the fifth annual horse show at Carthage, Indiana, commencing at 8 o'clock a. m. The managers are arranging for a bigger and better show than ever this year. Two hundred and fifty dollars in cash prizes will be given in the different contests. The premium list is a good one and will interest all horsemen. The Carthage horse shows are always attended by large crowds and everyone is always well satisfied with the show. A number of Rushville people will attend.

MEET AT SOCIAL CLUB

May Donnan Class Make Bid for Local Women to Take Up Work

The Rushville ladies who have attended Mrs. May W. Donnan's classes will be pleased to learn that a new course begins Saturday afternoon, October 5th, at 2:30 o'clock in the west parlor of the Social club house.

Mrs. Donnan has just returned from four months in Europe and will speak of a few of her experiences while there, and will tell of the work as planned.

The classes are conducted in a conversational way. There are no papers. No one is required to prepare lessons. Reading is assigned and those who wish to do will give the opportunity to do careful studying, while those who like to listen only, may do that. This is a rare chance for busy women to keep in touch with the best of the new books as well as to refresh their memories of the old.

A large attendance is desired. Mrs. Donnan has had many invitations to form classes in other cities, and if Rushville wishes her services the ladies must see to it that a full membership is secured.

Anyone wishing information as to terms, time, subject, etc., may communicate with Mrs. F. G. Hackleman, Mrs. Ora Wilson, Mrs. Thomas McWhinney or Mrs. Will Jay.

WILL SPEAK AT OPPONENT'S HOME

Congressman Watson Delivers
Home Coming Address at Columbus Tomorrow

Congressman Watson will be ushered into the camp of one of his opponents for the governorship nomination, when he makes the Home Coming address at Columbus tomorrow—the home of Hon. H. Th. Miller. Suffice it to say that a man of the Watson type leaves a good impression and many friends in any community where he visits and delivers a speech. His speech making in thirty-two counties of this State this year, is going to count for something when convention time rolls around.

The mellow October days have come. They are full of good cheer for the people of Rush county, as they keep on piling up the things that are good to eat, both for man and beast. After all here have had a sufficiency, there will be a big surplus to spare and for sale.

Congregation Says Accusation Against Rev. Tinsley
Not a Brotherly One

TAKES DAB AT MINISTERS

Who Demanded an Investigation
Alleging Heresy Against Man of Progressiveness

The many friends of Rev. Charles W. Tinsley, formerly pastor of St. Paul's M. E. church here, will be pleased to read the resolutions adopted by his congregation, in asking for his return.

The resolutions follow:
Resolved, That we, the members of the Fourth Quarterly Conference of Trinity M. E. church make the following statement concerning the pastorate of the Rev. C. W. Tinsley:

1. His work during the year now closing, has been in all ways highly successful and eminently satisfactory to our church membership. He has grown in favor with us as pastor and preacher until there is general and positively enthusiastic demand for his return for a second year.

2. He has shown splendid executive ability in the management of the large collection of five thousand dollars by which our church debt was paid.

3. His character as a christian gentleman has been above any breath of suspicion, while his kindly, yet frank manner has won all hearts.

4. His excellent wife and family have greatly aided him in his good work.

5. His sermons have been profound, clear, deeply spiritual and usually stimulating to the large audiences which have regularly heard them from Sabbath to Sabbath, and they have been also very helpful to the city generally.

6. His religious thinking is of the type known as "progressive" and when presenting any of the questions discussed by that school, it has been in such a kindly, judicious and careful manner as to win general satisfaction and commendation.

7. We deplore the means employed on the part of certain persons (ministers of our church) who have undertaken to make adverse criticisms as to some of Mr. Tinsley's public discussions of certain theological questions now being generally discussed throughout the christian churches, and we cannot feel that it is not wholly in the interest of sound doctrine and the advancement of our common Methodism, (and we feel that their refusal to comply with the direction of the presiding Elder in reference to their complaints and in a spirit of brotherly kindness present the same to Mr. Tinsley privately or even to attend upon his public discourses so as to be informed with regard to his teachings of un-Methodist and ungenerous and smacks more of persecution than of brotherly investigation, and have rendered their criticisms unworthy of the serious consideration of all lovers of truth and of all who sincerely seek the promotion of the Kingdom of God in our community.

8. We hereby request the presiding Bishop at the coming conference session to reappoint Mr. Tinsley, the pastor of Trinity church for another year.

The Rev. Kuhn's candidacy for the nomination for Congress of the Sixth district on the Democratic ticket has been formally announced.

This year's corn crop may not be quite as big as some, but will bring the farmers more money. The pumpkin is as yet unfrosted, and the Thanksgiving goose hangs high.

By official decree this week the old German money standard, the thaler ceases to be legal tender in Germany. It is the only coin antedating the establishment of the empire. Its disappearance marks the establishment of a pure gold standard throughout Germany.

People who object to jam in which there is no fruit ought to read the labels. Since the pure food law went into effect a certain kind of raspberry jam has borne this inscription: "This jam is made of glucose, with artificial seeds, and is colored with harmless aniline dyes." Hayseed appears to be too valuable for some preserves, and artificial seeds, made by machinery, are substituted.

The Illinois highway commission is inaugurating a good road campaign by sending speakers to the farmers' institutes, and besides, one of the special projects of the commission is to construct in the near future a so-called "object lesson" road. This highway will traverse several counties of the State. It will be an ideal country highway emphasizing in a special way the value and inexpensiveness of "dirt roads."

Science is doing a great deal for the farmer. Sometimes the farmer rejects science, but in the long run he comes to acknowledge his mistake. As the cultivated area of the world grows smaller in proportion to the increasing population agriculture must become more and more intensive. The farmer of the future will be more and more dependent upon the helping hand held out by the scientist. The national department, of agriculture, the State agricultural schools and experiment stations and countless enthusiastic unaffiliated experimenters will make successful farming one of the learned professions.

In speaking of the attitude of the Richmond Commercial club upon the question of street fakirs, the Richmond Item says in part:

"There never was a more flagrant case of open robbery than was practiced by the glib-tongued artist, who separated over $100 from the crowd last Saturday. It is not putting it too strongly to say that such a procedure is a serious reflection upon our city authorities. To have licensed such a swindler is wrong, and to have permitted him to ply his trade without molestation or investigation was wrong. The alleged sale of goods was as much of a robbery as a shell game or any of the gambling devices that the authorities are so prompt at suppressing.

"The street fakir is a swindler! His very business is prima facie evidence of it, and every time one of them is granted a license and permitted to rob the people by his clever talk and cheap entertainment, the city which permits it is in direct connivance with him. No city should become a partner of the street fakir and the gutter thief!"

A PROPER ASPIRATION
Hugh Th. Miller Seeks to Have "Lieut." Clipped Off His Title.

Indianapolis, Ind., October 2.—The formal announcement of Lieutenant Governor Hugh Th. Miller of Columbus for the Republican nomination for governor, has come much sooner than anticipated by the party leaders, and even by his intimate friends, who were given to understand last week that it would not be made for a month or two. The Columbus Republican, the party organ at his home, has made the announcement for him. The lieutenant governor expects to begin an aggressive campaign at once. His strength in the race is problematical with the politicians, as he never has been regarded as a party worker. He was unknown to the political game until the session of the legislature in 1903. He was elected a member of the house then and because of his academic ways he was appointed chairman of the committee on enrolled bills. The position had been held lightly in other sessions, but Mr. Miller gave it such strict attention that he soon became known as the authority of the house on all its proceedings. He also made a record by frequently bolting the Republican caucus when the leaders attempted to apply the party lash. His victory in the race for the nomination for lieutenant governor was one of the big surprises of the last national campaign, but his record in office was unsurpassed for the celebrity with which he transacted business. It was largely because of his record as lieutenant governor that his boom for governor was started. Many politicians figure that he will be an influential factor in the race.

Secretary of State Sims's report shows that the total receipts for the incorporation of domestic companies for the eleven months ending Sept. 30 amounted to $195,692.22. Receipts for the same class for the twelve months ending Oct. 31, 1906, were only $107,896.60. This is an increase of $87,795.62, not taking into consideration the fact that the period just closing is one month shorter. The total receipts of the same class from foreign companies for the year 1906 were $5,365.20. For the eleven months just closing the receipts of this class were $6,293.42, making an increase of $928.22. The receipts from miscellaneous fees, such as notary commissions and the recording of certificate fees, also showed a decided increase. For the twelve months in 1906, the income from this class of business amounted to $5,962.05, while the income from the same class for the eleven months just closing was $8,830.58, an increase of $2,868.53.

That there has been plenty of money in Indiana during the last eleven months is indicated in the financial report compiled by Frank I. Grubbs, assistant secretary of state. The report shows that much money has been invested during the year and that just 2,350 persons have acquired automobiles. The report is made for the eleven months ending Sept. 30 because of a change in the fiscal year. Receipts from the new registration of automobiles for the eleven months just closing amounted to $2,350. This means that just 2,350 citizens of Indiana have come into possession of automobiles during that time. These are persons who previously to the eleven months just closing have never owned autos, at least since the new law requiring state registration went into effect.

Richard O. Johnson of Indianapolis has been elected superintendent of the state institution for the deaf and dumb for life. He has been connected with it for eighteen years as superintendent and six years as secretary. The recent legislature enacted a law authorizing the board to appoint a man as superintendent for life. The state is now erecting a new institution for the deaf and dumb at a cost of nearly $1,000,000.

A UNITED FRONT

Attorneys General Join In Combination In Restraint of Trusts.

CORPORATION LITIGATION

In Almost Every State In the Union Is Expected to Be Affected by This Movement.

State Officers Also Seek a Way to Extract the Federal Court Thorns in the Flesh.

St. Louis, Oct. 2.—Action that will have far-reaching effect in anti-trust and corporation litigation and which will bear fruit in almost every state in the Union was taken by the convention of attorneys general in its final session here. A committee was appointed to draft a scheme of anti-trust legislation to be sent to all attorneys general and a resolution was adopted which is expected to remove a thorn in the flesh of the state officers, the interference by federal circuit courts with the operation of state laws. Permanent organization was also effected under the name of the "National Association of Attorneys General of the United States," and a united front will be presented in legal actions brought by different states against the same corporation or trust.

The resolution is in the shape of a memorial to congress and is as follows: "Whereas the efficient administration as well as the preservation of our dual system of government requires that each sovereignty be permitted to exercise its function as defined by the federal constitution unhampered by the other; therefore be it,

"Resolved by the convention of attorneys general of the several states here assembled, that we earnestly recommend to the president and the congress of the United States the enactment of a federal law providing that no circuit court of the United States or any judge exercising powers of such circuit courts shall have jurisdiction in any case brought to restrain any officer of a state or any administrative board of a state from instituting in a state court any suit or other appropriate proceedings to enforce the laws of such state or to enforce any other made by such administrative board; but allowing any person or corporation answering in any such action in state court, any right arising under the constitution or any laws of the United States to have the decision reviewed by the supreme court of the United States as now provided by law.

"We also recommend that suits in federal circuit courts by persons interested in corporations to restrain such corporations from obeying the laws of states in which they are doing business, be prohibited."

H. S. Hadley of Missouri was elected president and William H. Dickson of Colorado secretary and treasurer. President Hadley appointed as the committee to draft a plan for anti-trust legislation the following: R. B. Davidson of Texas, James Bingham of Indiana, Wade Ellis of Ohio, F. S. Jackson of Kansas, R. V. Fletcher of Mississippi, and S. M. Clark of South Dakota. President Hadley also announced that with two or three exceptions all the attorneys general in the Union had expressed a desire to participate in the future proceedings of the association, and in any course of action that might be decided upon.

Georgia for Foraker.
Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 2.—At a largely attended mass-meeting under the auspices of the Republican State League of Georgia here last night to select candidates for delegates-at-large to the Republican national convention, Senator J. The resolutions adopted said "the league was for Foraker first, and if he could not be nominated, then the league stood for any man who could defeat Roosevelt, Taft or any man named by Roosevelt."

The Deadly Live Wire.
Clermont, Ind., Oct. 2.—Milton Clark, attendant at the substation on the Ben Hur traction line, three miles east of this place, received 3,300 volts of electricity and lives to tell about it, although he is in a serious condition and his death may result. While engaged in his duties about the plant he touched a live wire and was seriously burned.

Sentenced in Juvenile Court.
Indianapolis, Oct. 2.—Grant Lightfoot, colored, fifteen years old, was sent to the Indiana boys' school at Plainfield by order of Judge Stubbs of the juvenile court, for manslaughter. Lightfoot stabbed Roy Moore, a white boy, in a quarrel in the southwest part of the city, the quarrel growing out of a friendly tussle between the boys. Moore died shortly after the stabbing. Lightfoot eluded the police for two days. He was indicted for manslaughter by the grand jury, but the case was sent back to the juvenile court on account of the boy's youth.

OPEN AIR CRUSADE

Has Received a Great Impetus In the Town of Rockport.

SHE CURED CONSUMPTION

Mrs. Fee In Advanced Stage of Dread Disease Began Tent Life and Has Regained Health.

Happy Results Follow Observance of Recommendations of the State Board of Health.

Rockport, Ind., Oct. 2.—That the best relief and cure for the white plague are in fresh air, nutritious food and hygienic measures generally is shown by a cure in Rockport. Mrs. W. A. Fee of this city had tuberculosis several years, and a year ago became so weak that she could hardly get around her home, and her life was despaired of.

Secretary Hurty of the board of health of Indiana sent out a set of rules which were intended to be placed in the hands of the afflicted, and contained the latest methods as to how to combat the malady. Among the most important of these rules is the injunction to have as much fresh air as possible when sleeping, advocating sleeping out of doors in a tent or other structure where the patient would get nothing but fresh air. Mrs. Fee obtained a set of these rules, and at the advice of her family physician, medicines were dispensed with and arrangements were made to pursue the open air treatment.

A large tent was placed in her yard near the house. A floor was placed in it and a stove arranged so that it could be heated, but at the same time there was opportunity for plenty of fresh air to get into the tent around the walls. Her husband assisted her to keep open air home, for she was not able to walk that short distance at that time. That was in the early part of the summer. They slept in the tent from that time until fall, all through last winter, even through the cold weather and the rainy season, and are still sleeping there.

From the beginning of this open air signs of improvement, until she is now able to perform the tasks of the ordinary woman, and is fast on the road to recovery. Other people in town who are not strong, though not afflicted with the disease, are seeking the open air. Some have screened in porches and use them for sleeping purposes and apartments, while others sleep in rooms with every window raised as far as it will go.

MINE WORKERS MEET

Question of Resuming Joint Conference Discussed.

Indianapolis, Oct. 2.—A number of the presidents, vice presidents and secretaries of the districts of the United Mine Workers of America in Indiana, Ohio, Illinois, Iowa and western Pennsylvania, the "central competitive field," have gathered in this city to meet in conference with John Mitchell, national president; William B. Wilson, national secretary, and Tom Lewis, national vice president. The meeting was called to take up the matter of resuming the joint conference with the operators of the "central competitive field."

From 1892 until 1905 joint conferences between representatives of the miners and operators of this field were held to decide upon the scale to be agreed upon by the two parties. In this city in 1905, however, the two bodies were unable to agree upon a scale, the joint conference for the field was abandoned, and separate agreements for the various districts in this field were made. It is said to be definitely assured that joint conferences between the miners and operators in this field will continue, but the question is as to whether these will be district conferences or a big conference covering the entire field as formerly. It is said that the majority of the mine workers seem to be in favor of the joint conference covering the entire "central competitive field."

Deserted by Girl Wife.

Bloomington, Ind., Oct. 2.—The final trouble that broke down Thomas Jaddis, who killed the whitecap leader, Jesse Robinson, one week ago, came when he was notified that his supposed girl wife had deserted him. He broke down completely and said that he had lost his last friend. Pressed for the facts, Jaddis said he was from Muncie and was charged with crimes there as already outlined. It is declared that he also finally confessed that he had never been married to the girl. She took the children with her and would tell no one where she was going.

Enforcing Game Laws.

Laporte, Ind., Oct. 2.—Charles W. Rogers of New Carlisle was fined $126.80 in Justice Grover's court for illegal fishing. He was caught Sunday afternoon by Game Warden Hill using a seine in Hudson lake. As a result of Rogers' arrest important developments, involving several prominent New Carlisle men, are expected. This is the fifth conviction here in less than a week for violations of game and fish laws.

WOMEN'S WOES

Rushville Women are Finding Relief at Last

It does seem that women have more than a fair share of the aches and pains that afflict humanity; they must "keep up," must attend to duties in spite of constantly aching backs, or headaches, dizzy spells, bearing-down pains; they must stoop over, when to stoop means torture. They must walk and bend and work with racking pains and many aches from kidney ills. Kidneys cause more suffering than other organ of the body. Keep the kidneys well and health is easily maintained. Read of a remedy for kidneys only that helps and cures the kidneys and is endorsed by people you know.

Mrs. B. W. Reynolds 620 W. Fifth Street, Rushville, Ind., says: "I had a constant backache that robbed me of energy and enjoyment. Frequent headaches added to my unhappiness and I was always tired but could get no rest at night. Although I used several remedies I did not get better but steadily grew worse. I read statements of people whom Doan's Kidney Pills had helped and my husband got me a box at F. B. Johnson & Company's drug store. Since using them, I have been free from backache and all kidney trouble."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Mexican Mine Disaster.

El Paso, Tex., Oct. 2.—News has reached here of another slide in the Mexican Central quarries near Victoria in which many laborers were buried alive. Sixteen dead and eleven fatally injured have been taken out. It is known that many others are buried under the tons of earth and rock, with no hope of being rescued alive.

A Cordial Reception.

Mexico City, Oct. 2.—With all the members of the Mexican cabinet present, President Diaz received Secretary Root in the hall of ambassadors in the national palace. The meeting between the two statesmen was most cordial.

THE STEADFAST POLICY OF REPUBLICAN PARTY

[Special Correspondence.]

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 2.—When the improvements started during the last two Republican administrations are finished, the state of Indiana will have one of the finest systems of educational, penal, correctional and benevolent institutions in the country. In fact, at this time, everything considered, the state has a number of the foremost institutions of the kind in the United States.

It has been the steadfast policy of the representatives of the Republican party placed here by the people to improve the state institutions until a very high standard has been attained.

With the view to knowing just how to legislate for these institutions some Republican members of the legislature a few years ago provided for the appointment of a commission to visit every institution biennially and to report just what was needed. The result has been obvious to everyone who has taken any pains to investigate. The institutions are being rapidly perfected and are being operated on a minimum basis. Not only are the institutions larger and better equipped, but the cost of maintaining them is proportionately smaller than during the old Democratic regimes when the institutions were used to strengthen political machines.

Now Epileptic Village.

A home for the unfortunate epileptics has been opened near Newcastle where the state is preparing to spend several hundred thousand dollars in building a new institution. The amount sounds colossal, but it is not in view of the fact that the state is preparing for the care of the unfortunate of future generations. The agitation for a village for epileptics began several years ago. The matter was advanced as rapidly as possible by the Republicans, but no appropriation was made until it was felt that the situation required it and that the state had the money to spare.

The reports showing that scores of epileptics had no places to go; that the hospitals for the insane were already overcrowded and that epileptics were living in horrible condition in county poor farms and jails, convinced the legislature that immediate action was necessary.

An appropriation of $150,000 was made two years ago. This amount was increased during the recent session and the institution is now ready to care for the unfortunate. As further evidence of the forethought of the party's representatives in arranging this institution, plans are being made giving the inmates of the village opportunity to do out door work in helping raise products for their food. The institution is said to be a model of the kind.

To Care for Consumptives.

Over fifty sites for the proposed state hospital and farm for consumptives have been offered, but none will be selected until after thorough consideration of the various advantages they have and just how far they meet the requirements. The state will buy 500 acres of land as a starter. It expects to pay about $32,000 for the site.

"The site that combines our wants is the site that will be chosen," said Dr. Moore, member of the commission. "Many of the sites we have visited have one or two or even more of the qualities that we deem essential, but not all of them. One site had good water, but the elevation is not high enough; another has a good location, good timber and tillable land, but has no water; still a third has every quality except location; a fourth has every quality desired, but is too expensive for the commission to buy."

This institution is expected not only to prove a god-send to the poor, unfortunate consumptives, but a benefit to the public in general. It will be demonstrated how much can be done in Indiana towards the prevention and cure of consumption.

Many people objected to the experiment on the ground that it is too expensive, but the statistics published by the state board of health show that the annual cost of consumption in Indiana is several million dollars.

Stringent Criminal Laws.

While the tendency of the law is to give to the youth or first offender every proper chance to reform and become a good citizen, it is also in accordance with the trend of social affairs that the period of confinement for confirmed criminals is lengthening. Provision was made for the suspension of sentence and release of adults on probation by the court, as has been heretofore done with children. On the contrary the term for petit larceny was increased to maximum sentence of eight years instead of three years as heretofore. The age of consent was raised to eighteen years and imprisonment for life is the penalty for rape on a girl under twelve years of age, and for a third imprisonment in a penal institution for a felony. Family desertion is made a felony punishable by imprisonment in the state prison. The court, however, may suspend sentence, release the prisoner and impose conditions.

A law was also passed authorizing the sterilization of defectives and degenerates. This is the first law of this kind ever passed. These measures that the legislature has put into our hands are splendid tools for proper social advancement if we but use them aright.

The foregoing are only a few of the good laws passed during the last legislature, which many people condemned without knowing what actually was accomplished.

TENDERLOIN AND OYSTERS ARE TEMPTING

Tenderloin and oysters, while making a unique and distinctive dish, are at the same time so simple to prepare that the ability of the inexperienced cook is not taxed, says the September Delineator.

Let her first mix a little butter and flour in her stew pan, and, when the blend has browned let her add a chopped Spanish onion and two pickled walnuts that have been cut into small pieces. A moment or two later two table spoonfuls of mushroom custard and a teaspoonful of Worcestershire sauce are added, after which the uncut tenderloin steak is placed on top of this mixture to simmer for about an hour. It must be turned three or four times during the interval.

YOUNG MEN AND GIRLS SHOULD MINGLE FREELY

I believe that young men and girls ought to see a great deal of each other, because I believe that intercourse between men and women, and a knowledge of how that intercourse should be carried on, is one of the fine arts—a fine art in which the best is cultivated. Think of how the freedom of our young girls lives makes the fine American character always a matter of wonder to Europeans. Think, too, of another thing: Wherever it is the custom for men and women to meet in friendly intercourse, even the architecture of a country is affected. Reception rooms are arranged, for one thing, and furniture is built. You do not see these things among savages, nor where women are slaves. So it means that civilization has advanced when men and women began to meet one another for other than purely business or domestic reason. So when you girls begin to worry about whether it is proper to ask men to come and see you you are really beginning, though you do not know it, to understand something of what the fine art of social intercourse may be. Remember this, though it never can be an art, when men are conscious about each other; when men are thought of merely as marriageable possibilities; and women as being in the matrimonial market. Those sorts of ideas belong only to lower orders of intelligence—so dismiss them from your minds.

W. B. REDUSO for LARGE WOMEN

Restraints tendency to overfleshiness, and moulds the over-developed proportions into graceful outlines hitherto thought to be attainable only by slighter figures.

This splendid result is attained by an unbanded apron extension which reaches down over the abdomen and hips, giving the wearer absolute freedom of movement.

This feature absolutely eliminates the necessity of any harness-like devices and straps, hitherto deemed essential on corsets of this kind.

Reduso Style 750—(For tall stout women), which is illustrated here, is built, as per description, with medium high bust. Made of durable coutil, in white or drab. Hose supporters front and sides. Sizes 22 to 36. Price, $3.00

A large barn on the farm of Arthur Andrews, about a mile south of Flat Rock burned last night. The fire was discovered by Mr. Andrews at about midnight. At the time it was found to be burning, the entire structure was a mass of flames and the walls were almost ready to fall.
The Pennsylvania lines west have just made a distinction of "much interest in phraseology. Fares, not rates, is the word to be used when speaking of anything regarding payment for transportation on the lines. Rates is a word left for the freight department. This is the only road in the country so far as known where this distinction is made.
The funeral services of Mrs. Eliza Pollitt, who died at the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. Ed Darnell, Monday afternoon, were held this afternoon at the residence on the corner of Morgan and First streets. Dr. R. W. Abberley, pastor of the Main Street Christian church, had charge of the services. Immediately after the funeral services the remains were taken to Milroy, where interment was made in the cemetery at that place.

CLOSED HUNTING SEASON IS NOW ON
Nimrods are Forbidden to Kill Any Game Until November, 10.
The closed season began in Indiana yesterday, October 1st, and continues until November 10th. Hunters during this period are forbidden to kill game of any kind and even shooting rabbits will be followed by a fine, if the sportsman is caught. This provision of the law is made especially to protect the young quail that are not yet sufficiently strong of wing to care for themselves when the hunters get after them with gun and dog. In the time between the dates mentioned these young birds will have become full grown and by November 10th will be able to take care of themselves.

Stop the Strenuous Life.
Weakens the Tissues and Lessens Organic Vitality.
The stress and strain of the strenuous life in both city and country tends towards stomach troubles.
Five people suffer today where one did ten years ago with sick headache, dizziness, flatulence, distress after eating, specks before the eyes, bloating, nervousness, sleeplessness and the many other symptoms of indigestion.
All who are suffering with stomach troubles, and that means that two out of three in Rushville and other towns, should use Mi-o-na stomach tablets. Nothing else is as safe, yet effective; nothing else can be so thoroughly relied upon to relieve all troubles from indigestion as Mi-o-na.
It is not a mere digestive taken after the food is eaten, but a true tonic, stimulant and strengthener for the muscular walls of the stomach, increasing the flow of digestive fluids and putting the stomach into such condition that it does the work Nature expects of it.
So reliable is Mi-o-na in its curative action that Johnson's Drug Store, with every 50-cent box they sell, give a guarantee to refund the money unless the remedy does all that is claimed for it.

Buy Your Happiness.
You can't be happy when you don't feel like it. But, if you don't feel like it you can buy Seline Pills and thus restore your shattered nerves. Seline Pills are guaranteed for nervous men and women. $1.00 a box; six boxes $5.00, with full guarantee. Address or call Hargrove & Mullin, Rushville. This is the store that sells all the principal remedies and does not substitute.

Amusements
"At the Old Crossroads" will be the attraction at the beautiful playhouse, the Auditorium in Connersville Friday night, and a number of Rushville theatre goers will see this interesting story of Southern life.
The Grand theatre has an exceptionally strong bill tonight and Thursday night. "The Fountain of Youth" is the title of one of the subjects which is worthy of attention. "The Double Barreled Suicide" and "Atkins Minds the Baby" are extra fine. Miss Brown will sing the pictured song, "Honey Time." The entire bill is a series of comic situations.
The Vaude offers one of the best programs tonight and tomorrow night that it has shown yet. "The Bands in Competition" is one of the most comic situations imaginable. "The Dancing Nig" is one that is bound to please lovers of motion pictures. By special request Mr. Wilson will sing the beautiful illustrated ballad, "Dearie" which he sang a few weeks ago.

SOLICITING CLOTHING FOR DESTITUTE FAMILY
Who Lost Their Clothing and Bedding in the Fire Yesterday Morning
A movement is on foot by Rev. J. E. Griffith to secure clothing and bedding for the Taylor family, who lost their clothing and bedding in the fire yesterday morning.
This movement is a worthy one and all who can give anything will be called upon for same. Rev. Griffith is the Presiding Elder of the Home Mission Society and is located in the tent on Perkins street, between Second and Third streets, holding meetings each night in connection with the Salvation Army.

An Everyday Remark:
"I have such a cold."
Have you noticed that there are not as many people with colds as there were two or three weeks ago?
The only way we can account for it is that we have sold more Raymond Anti-Grip Tablets in the last four weeks than we sold in any one month last winter.
People are beginning to learn that there is a quick cure for colds.
